～ Information on children's Aikido for the future ～

Aiki GAIA Project

A companion that exists on the same earth

Human, animals, plants

And in a big sense, one life form seen from space

GAIA (earth)

By the idea of "Aikido" of soexistence and co-prosperity

It is a project to connect everything

Aiki GAIA Project

Aikido kids connection is an activity to create a harmonious world while interacting with people from various countries.
The purpose is to broaden your horizons in a sensitive and unbiased childhood, to strengthen your body and hone your Kokoro (mind) through Aikido.
We also have internet exchanges, exchange lessons, and international training camps.

合氣
Aiki

A group of Aikido practitioners in white gi are kneeling on a green mat. In the foreground, two practitioners are performing a bow (rei). In the background, several others are kneeling, some looking towards the camera and others looking down. One practitioner in the background is holding a white paper, possibly a certificate or a list. The setting appears to be a dojo with wooden walls and a red border on the mat.
